

Education Plan for Academic Graduate in Applied Economics

(Discipline Code:0202,Award Master Degree of Economics)

I Objectives

Primary discipline master degree program of applied economics aims to develop the high-level talents who have both ability and political integrity to be engaged in the theory and policy research, analysis and management of economic operation in the government economic management departments, enterprises and scientific research units, require graduates:

1. To master the specialized foundation theory and the professional knowledge of the system, comprehend the dynamic of academic frontier, can be capable of higher-level teaching, scientific research, and specialized business management work of Economic Disciplines.
2. To master a foreign language, be able to skillfully conduct professional reading and writing.

II Disciplinary Research Areas

- (a) Regional Economics (Specialty Code: 020202)
Regional economic development strategy and programming
- (b) Finance (Specialty Code: 020204)
Financial innovation and financial engineering
- (c) Industrial Economics (Specialty Code: 020205)
Industrial organization and competition
- (d) International Trade (Specialty Code: 020206)
International investment and Multinational business management
- (e) Environmental Economics (Specialty Code: 020209)
Resources and environmental economic analysis
- (f) E-Business (Specialty Code: 0202Z1)
E-business
- (g) Public Finance (Specialty Code: 020203)
Public economic theory and policy

III Educational System and Years of Study

The educational system of master is 3years, and the schooling is generally 3years, no more than 5 years.

IV Curriculum System and Credit Requirements

Postgraduate courses include degree courses and non-degree courses. Degree courses are the courses that must be attended to reach the requirements of training objectives and ensure the educational quality of postgraduates, which are divided into public degree courses and professional degree courses. Non-degree courses are the optional courses designed for broadening postgraduates' knowledge scope, improving knowledge structure or deepening some knowledge.

1. Courses system and credit requirement are as follows:

Graduation total credits require no less than 31 credits, course total credits no less than 26 credits, degree courses credits no less than 19 credits (public degree courses include 7 credits and professional degree courses no less than 12 credits), optional courses no less than 7 credits (must choose an experiment course or a research methods course), compulsory link includes 5 credits.

2. Courses period and credit distribution

Course Category		Course No.	Course Name	Hour	Credit	Semester	School	Remark
Public Degree Courses		003281001	First Foreign Language(Chinese)	108	6	1、2	School of Internation Education
		003281002	Introduction to China	54	3	1	School of Internation Education
Professional Degree Courses		01621151	Microeconomics	36	2	1	School of Economics
		01621152	International Economics	36	2	1	School of Economics
		01621153	Chinese Business Culture	36	2	1	School of Economics
		01621154	Macroeconomics	36	2	2	School of Economics	International Students
		01621155	International Financial Management	36	2	2	School of Economics	International Students
Optional Courses	Professional Optional Courses	01622151	International Marketing	36	2	1	School of Economics	International Students
		01622152	Investment Decision-Making	36	2	2	School of Economics	International Students
		01622153	Econometrics	36	2	2	School of Economics	International Students
		01622154	Industrial Organization	36	2	2	School of Economics	International Students
		01622155	International Business Strategy	36	2	2	School of Economics	International Students
		01622156	E-Business	36	2	2	School of Economics	International Students
		01622157	Special Topics on Chinese Economy	36	2	2	School of Economics	International Students

Course Category	Course No.	Course Name	Hour	Credit	Semester	School	Remark
	01622158	Regional Economics	36	2	2	School of Economics	01622158
Interdisciplinary elective course	02223001	Taijiquan and its	18	1	1	Department of Physical Education
Compulsory Courses	01624004	Field Practice		3	3	School of Economics
	01624002	Topic Report		1	3	School of Economics
	01624003	Academic Activities	(5Times)	1	6	School of Economics	